2. Raising a caring and compassionate child

Last year, a 12-year-old boy, Ashvin Gunasegaran, was featured in the newspaper for taking the initiative to help victims involved in a car accident because he realised that no one went forward to help them. His actions showed kindness and bravery.

It is important that we develop compassion both as a character trait and a behavioural style in our children. Some strategies to raise a caring and compassionate child:

- Be a moral role model and mentor by practising honesty, fairness and caring ourselves.
- Expand your child's circle of concern to care about someone outside his/her circle of families and friends.
- Provide opportunities for children to practise caring and gratitude.
- Guide children in managing and expressing negative feelings in a helpful and appropriate way such as taking a deep breath and talking about the issue to an adult.

I hope you find the above information useful. If you have queries or feedback, please email me at lin\_shiying\_diana@moe.edu.sg.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Diana Tan-Lin Shiying
